THE SENATE CALLS ON GOVERNOR FOR PROOF

bill relates to homesteads and householders. One of the House amendments changed the word "person" to citizen. The Senate refused to concur in this, while all the other amendments were agreed to. The change of the word deprives foreigners of the right to homestead. The chair appointed Senators Achi, Kalaupokalani and White a committee to confer with the House committee to adjust the matter.

The debate of the day was over the House bill appropriating $250,000 as a gift to ex-Queen Liliuokalani. Senator Carter spoke sympathetically of the ex-Queen, and desired to do something for her. He deplored the prejudice against him exhibited because he came of a missionary family. "I can't help it if I am the raton croc of missionary," he exclaimed. He was in favor of a resolution which could be considered with the appropriation bill, which would provide a suitable yearly pension for the former sovereign.

Senator Achi spoke in the same vein, expressing in a touching manner his heartfelt sympathy for the fallen monarch. "But," he said, "if we pass this bill it will be a dead letter. There is not enough money coming into the treasury that is unappropriated to pay her. The matter will have to be referred to Congress, and she will be out of the money for a year at best." He was therefore in favor of a regular pension.

Senator Kalaupokalani spoke of the wrong of the Queen, and was surprised that there should be any opposition.
He said: "After being deposed by the party represented by the Senators who have expressed so much sympathy for her, the least they can do is to vote for this slight recompense. The ex-Queen had petitioned Congress for help, and Congress had referred the matter back to Hawaii for consideration, and this bill was the result. He therefore moved that the bill pass.

C. Brown—"It is an old saying that a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush. If we put a pension for the ex-Queen into the appropriation bill she can get $500 a month. She cannot have that and this lump sum both. I feel that under this bill she will not receive any money, and if she does not, it will not be the fault of the Republicans."

The vote to lay upon the table was lost, and the bill passed by a strictly party vote of 9 to 6.

A communication from Secretary Cooper announced the receipt by the Governor of the action by the Senate concerning his appointments.

Bill 80, to amend sections 10 and 12, of Act 45, of the Senate, of the Session Laws of 1896, passed second reading, and Senator White moved that the bill be set for third reading on May 2, thus indicating that the Independents propose continuing the session for three days further. The Senate then adjourned until 2 o'clock.

At the opening of the afternoon session a message was received from the Governor, making appointments of the commissioners under the fire claims bill. The Governor's message is as follows:

To the Senate of the Territory of Hawaii:

In accordance with a bill passed by the Legislature of the Territory, entitled, "An Act to provide for the ascertainment and payment of all the claims which may be made by persons whose property was destroyed in the years A. D. 1899 and 1900, under orders of the Board of Health, authorizing the Governor to appoint a commission of five disinterested and competent citizens of the Territory of Hawaii, of whom at least one shall be an attorney at law, to hear and investigate all such claims, I herewith submit the following names for your consideration: Fred Macfarlane, chairman; A. N. Kepolokai, Arthur C. Lovekin, Lorrin Andrews, Joseph G. Pratt.

SANFORD B. DOLE,
Executive Chamber, April 30, 1901.

The Governor's message was set for consideration at 7:30 p. m.

Senator Kalaupokalani then presented the concurrent resolution given elsewhere.
Senator Kalaupokalani made a fiery speech condemning the Governor. He stated that it was not necessary for him to take the report of the evidence of newspapers or committees of a mass meeting to prove that the Governor is guilty of grave accusations against members of the Legislature, which he did not believe could be proven; that when he was on the committee from the Senate to ask for an extension of the session, the Governor had given as his reason for not granting the request, that he knew bribery had been resorted to to influence legislation. For that reason he moved the resolution passed by the Senate, and after speaking for the Governor, moved that the resolution be laid on the table. Lost.

The resolution then passed by a vote of 9 to 6.

Adjourned to 7:30 p. m.

NIGHT SESSION.

The Senate convened promptly at 7:30 o'clock for the consideration of the Governor's message but, for reasons best known to the majority, routine matters were taken up until Senator Carter protested and demanded that the important business of considering the Governor's appointments of commissioners of fire claims be taken up, and moved that the Senate go into executive session. This was amended by Senator Crabbe to be considered in open session. Carried.

Senator C. Brown, in a very able speech, set forth the importance of confirming the Governor's appointments, as nothing could be done after 12 o'clock, and if the commissioners were not confirmed the sufferers from the fire could not obtain redress for two years; and he submitted, that as both parties were pledged to affirm the claimants' relief, the majority could not ignore the responsibility to the people if they failed to acquiesce in the confirmation of the Governor's appointments. Senator Brown then very clearly stated the special qualifications of each of the appointees, eulogizing them in glowing terms. Mr. Brown was listened to attentively, for all seemed to feel the gravity of the situation, and it was evidently expected by the Republican Senators that the appointments would be turned down, for Mr.
Brown exclaimed in closing: "If the majority fail to confirm these appointments it will be simply out of spite against the Governor, and if you do it will be hard to square it with the people."

Senator White moved, in turn, that F. W. Macfarlane, A. N. Kepolokai, J.
G. Pratt and A. C. Lovekin be confirmed. Each of these received the unanimous support of the Senate. At this juncture Senator Kalaupokalani rose and delivered himself of a fiery speech, the bone of contention being the name of Lorrin Andrews. Mr. Ka-laupokalani had no objection to Mr.
Andrews personally, but thought he should not be confirmed, as he already held one position under the government.

Senator Brown interrupted the member from Oahu, and explained that the Organic Act permitted a man to hold two positions if the combined salary did not exceed $1,800 a year.

Senator Kalaupokalani then broke loose against the Governor, claiming that he had taken an unfair advantage; first, in appointing all Republicans, and second, in appointing four white men to one Hawaiian. It was the usual custom in such cases to appoint from both parties, but the Governor had absolutely ignored the Home Rule party and Hawaiians of dark skins. He would accept three white men to two Hawaiians, and had voted for Kepolokai, but he moved that the appointment of Lorrin Andrews be turned down. Carried by a party vote.

A committee, comprising Senators Baldwin and Kalaupokalani, were chosen to apprise the Governor of the action of the Senate, and a recess of half an hour was taken to give the committee time to report.

At 10:10 o'clock the Senate reconvened, and the following communication from Secretary Cooper, read:

Sir—I have the honor to acknowledge your communication of this date wherein you advise me that the Senate has this day confirmed the appointment of a commission of five citizens, as submitted by the Governor this day, with the exception of Lorrin Andrews, Esq., which last named appointment, as a member of said commission, was rejected.

I have the honor to inform you that the matter has been submitted to the Governor for his consideration. I am, sir, very respectfully yours, HENRY COOPER,
Secretary of the Territory.

Immediately after the reading of the Cooper communication the sergeant at arms announced a message from the Governor in which the name of F. J.
Testa was substituted for that of Lorrin Andrews. Mr. Testa was immediately confirmed, and the Senate took another recess to the call of the chair.

There was an air of expectancy, and no one was inclined to adjourn.
The information developed that Mr.
Testa had been offered the place in the morning, but was compelled to refuse because he had a fire claim. During the afternoon, however, he disposed of his claim between the Governor's first and second messages, and was therefore eligible for the position last evening.

At 11:15 o'clock the sergeant at arms again rapped, and announced a message from the Governor, which was delivered to President Kalua by A. G.
Hawes Jr., the Governor's private secretary. It appears above.

The session closed with the introduction of a resolution by Senator Carter eulogistic of President S. E.
Kalua, Secretary Edgar Cayless, Assistant Secretary Connelley, and Interpreter Bush. Innocent and complimentary as this resolution appeared on its face, it created a good-natured sword play, as the Independents feared the passing of the usual complimentary resolution would commit them to acquiescence in the close of the session, and acknowledgment that yesterday was the last day of the session.

Therefore, upon motion of Mr. White, the complimentary resolution of Senator Carter was voted down.

For the Republican Senators, Mr. C.
Brown made a remarkable speech, considering the dissatisfaction he had heretofore expressed. He complimented the chair in glowing terms, and expressed his satisfaction with the labors of the Senate. The motion to adjourn sine die was lost, and a motion to adjourn until today at 10:30 o'clock.

The Senate adjourned without doing anything with the Governor's message.

One of the important actions of the Senate in its later moments was the reconsideration of the name of Dr. C.
B. Cooper as a member of the Board of Health, and his unanimous confirmation by the Senate.

W. C. Achi gives notice that no person is authorized to incur debts in their name on the Island of Hawaii.
